

Religion and Politics Colloquium

The MacMillan Center Initiative on Religion, Politics and Society

Speaker List for Spring 2008

Mondays @ 4 PM, Room 202, Luce Hall

- January 14     Peter Dobkin Hall
Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government

The Decline, Transformation, and Revival of the Christian Right in the United States
- January 28     Jonathan Laurence
Boston College, Department of Political Science

Extra-Parliamentary Interest Representation and Political Moderation: The Case of State-Islam Relations in Western Europe
- February 11    Terence Halliday
American Bar Foundation

The Legal Complex, Religion and the Fates of Political Liberalism in Africa and Asia
- February 25    R. Scott Appleby
University of Notre Dame, Department of History

The Fundamentalism of the Professional Class: Rethinking Secularity and Religion
- March 3        Ronald F. Thiemann
Harvard University, Divinity School

Literary Art as Social Criticism: Religion and Politics Reconsidered
- March 24       Anna Grzymala-Busse
University of Michigan, Department of Political Science

The Sacralization of Politics in Advanced and Post-Communist Democracies
- April 7         Harry Stout
Yale University, Department of History

Moral Reflections on the American Civil War

April 21

Ronald Inglehart

University of Michigan, Department of Political Science

Religion and Politics in Global Perspective: New Evidence from the World Values Surveys

April 28

Lucas Swaine

Dartmouth College, Department of Government

The Liberal Conscience: Politics and Principle in a World of Religious Pluralism